We, the class of January 1954, are on the verge of a great discovery—our future. With graduation, we are launched into the unknown. Our teachers and parents have prepared us for life's experiences to the best of their ability, but the utility of our lives rests solely with ourselves. These people have tried to direct us toward a high goal—one we must try to attain. We owe them our best efforts.

To us, our future is as unknown as a trip to the moon—as incomprehensible as human flight was before Kitty Hawk. Men were unable to imagine a horseless carriage, a talking machine, or flameless illumination. These things have become commonplace. In the same manner, in fifty years, perhaps, interplanetary travel will be a reality. It is our wish that then, as we look back at this book, we may feel that we have accomplished something. Our achievements may not equal our goals or even be notable, but desire for, and effort toward a goal are often more valuable than attainment itself. It is to our parents and teachers, who have tried to place us on the right course—to make our future the best possible, that we dedicate this book.

GOAL GAINED, ANOTHER IN REACH

Girl With TB Wins Diploma in Graduation Class of One

A diploma from Redford High School is the prized possession today of Mary Jeanne Kutz, 18, a patient at Herman Kiefer Hospital.

To her it represents two goals, one achieved and one within the reach of hope.

When she recovers, Mary Jeanne plans to take a teacher's course at Michigan State College. Her hard-won high school diploma brings her a step nearer that ambition.

As a graduation class of one, Mary Jeanne received her diploma yesterday from Chester Loomis, assistant principal of Herman Kiefer and the Maybury Sanatorium Hospital Schools. Both schools are part of the special education department of the Detroit Board of Education.

Her commencement was a family affair. The small audience included only her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel D. Kutz, of 12733 Bentler, and her younger sister, Barbara Sue.

Mary Jeanne was to have graduated with her class in January. She was brought to the hospital instead after an illness, first identified as a virus infection, was diagnosed as tuberculosis. She has been ill since November.

ARM PEASANTS IN GUATEMALA

MEXICO CITY, June 25.

—(P)—John K. Chapel, an Oakland, Calif., newsman, arrived here last night after a perilous road trip from warring Guatemala. He was stopped four times by armed peasants manning road blocks and was arrested once in Guatemala City.

Chapel said he saw no fighting.

He said he was arrested in Guatemala City when he photographed members of the civil guard unpacking rifles.

"Graduation day last January was pretty bad for me," Mary Jeanne said. "I felt I was missing the biggest thing in my life.

"That was when I decided to study and make up my work so I could graduate, go to college and teach school some day."

Mary Jeanne's illness also caused her to miss the class prom. She had anticipated wearing a new dress and had been happy about her "date."

But past disappointments are forgotten now that she has earned her diploma. Her family brought flowers, gifts and a huge graduation cake. Red letters on the white icing said, "Congratulations, Jeanne."

She also made a new friend. Ronald Smith, who was to have graduated yesterday with his class at Cass Technical High School, is a patient on the same floor.

Ronald received his diploma in the hospital as members of his class looked on. Later the two graduates met to share Mary Jeanne's cake.

An accident in Havre, Montana, July 28, 1953, took Bob Mercer from the members of our graduating class. Bob was president of the Biology Club for one year and was elected to serve again this term. He played bassoon in the Senior Band and Senior Orchestra. He was a Boy Scout and received the highest honor in scouting, the God and Country Award. In addition to his school activities, Bob participated in church groups. He was vice-president of his local church youth group and held offices in city and state groups. As a lay preacher in his church, he was on the first step toward becoming a minister.

Redford, trying to avenge last year's loss of the West Side Championship to U. of D., by one game, opened this season by rolling over Central 22 to 0. Little was accomplished by Redford in the first half, the team leading only 2 to 0, but in the second half the Huskies capitalized on three scoring opportunities: a blocked and recovered punt, an intercepted pass, and a long drive.

Redford's next challenger was last year's Metro Champs, U. of D. High. Both teams fought to a standstill during the first three quarters. In the last quarter, the Huskies took advantage of a poor punt by U. of D. from deep in its own territory. Finlayson set up the short drive by grobbing the punt and racing to the 16 yard line. Janke smashed through center to score. The final score: Redford 6, U. of D. 0.

The Huskies, still maintaining their unscored-upon record, met and defeated Southwestern 19 to 0. Ken Borgne scored two touchdowns, one in the first quarter, the other in the third. His second scoring opportunity came when Jim Lozon intercepted a pass, carrying it to the 1 yard line. Janke scored the final touchdown in the last quarter. Clarence Abrams converted.

An inspired Northwestern team fought Redford hard in the first half, coming out on top 6 to 0. In the second half a pass from Borgne to Finlayson set the ball on the Northwestern 24. Don Beehler drove over for the touchdown. An unusual conversion, a pass from Noren to Finlayson in the end zone, put Redford ahead 7 to 6. Two more touchdowns came later, one by Borgne, the other by Dick Johnson when he intercepted a pass. The final score 20 to 6, in favor of Redford.

Western proved to be the team which snapped untied, unbeaten records for both Redford and Chadsey, leaders of the west side. Tense, coatless Redford rooters filled the Sawyer Field bleachers on another beautiful Indian summer afternoon to see a game filled with hard tackles, driving plays, and upsetting moments. When the gun went off, neither team came out the victor, tying 7 to 7.

In a non-league game with Northern, the Huskies scored an 18 to 0 shutout. During the game Redford tried various plays, getting ready for Chadsey.

The Huskies attained their goal of West Side Metro title by tying Chadsey 6 to 6. Paul Petro scored for Chadsey on a 35 yard run, after a Redford fumble was recovered. Redford's tying touchdown came in the closing minutes after a series of passes and runs. Ken Borgne, who was the ball carrier, took it over on a one-yard smash. Redford's eleven were again West Side Champions.

Redford, being West Side Champs, qualified to play the Pershing Doughboys for the Metropolitan Championship at U. of D. Stadium, Friday, November 13. It turned out to be a dark Friday for Redford. Pershing, living up to its rating as the Number 1 Class A team in Michigan, downed the Huskies 27 to 7. At the right, Lyle Minnick breaks away from a Pershing tackler.

Pershing entered the game as a heavy favorite.

In the first few minutes of play, Redford rooters felt sure of an upset. But it was then that the Huskies felt the effect of the hard-running Pershing backfield. A crowd of 16,000 saw the Doughboys score in every period. Jim Lozon, at the right, gets set to punt on a fourth down. He maintained an average of 28 yards per try.

Late in the last quarter, Bob Warren broke through the Pershing line to block a punt, sending the ball back to the five-yard line. On first down, Al Noren whirled around end to score, preventing a blank space for Redford in the scoring column. Clarence Abrams converted for the extra point. Noren's run was similar to Ken Borgne's, pictured at the right.

Richard Ehrle's hard running led this year's Cross Country team to two victories, but Redford suffered an equal number of defeats. He showed his heels to the four teams Redford met, coming in first against Cooley, Cody, Northwestern, and Central. In the West Side cross country meet, he also finished first. The City meet was Ehrle's final bid for recognition, but he was unable to overcome swift-running Don Wheeler of Pershing and had to finish behind him for a second place.

In contrast to other sports, the Cross Country team earning the lowest number of points is the winner. The sum of the positions in which each individual finishes, up to five, determines his team's score. All meets were held on the regulation two-mile course at Palmer Park.

Cooley was Redford's first opponent this season. Richard Santer finished behind Ehrle, but the next six winners were from Cooley. John Lama finished ninth. Cooley managed to place enough men to get the lowest score and beat Redford 25 to 40.

Redford literally ran over Cody in its next meet, beating them 15 to 65. Cody has an inexperienced squad which should improve in the following seasons.

Northwestern, running in its traditional outstanding style, overpowered Redford 16 to 40. Ehrle's number one spot was not enough to offset Northwestern's strength, for Redford's next runner to cross the finish line was Brownfield in twelfth place.

Redford's second and last victory came against Central with a close 27-30. The Huskies took five high positions with Ehrle's first, Luster's third, Lama's sixth, Brownfield's eighth, and Berry's ninth.

Redford swimmers started their season decisively by soundly beating Southwestern, Chadsey, and later, Central, Cody, and Cooley. Although some of our scores were high, the boys still met strong competition, and in the Mackenzie and Western meets where the opposition was strongest, they fought the hardest. After beating Cody, Redford became West Side Champions and was all ready for the City and Dual championship meets.

In the Mackenzie meet, Ellis was the star for Mackenzie, swimming and winning the 100 yard freestyle and the 100 individual medley. Bill Frederick of Mackenzie gave Bill Dietrich of Redford a close race in the 200 yard freestyle. The deciding factor of the meet was the relay in which the freestyle team took two firsts to win.

In the Western meet, Captain Bill Deacon took a close second to Western's Conley in the 100 yard back stroke with Bob Sprenger of Redford placing third. It was an extremely close meet with the points alternating in favor of Redford, then Western, until the last minutes. The medley relay team of Deacon, Anderson, and Dietrich came in first place, thus building up Husky hopes. The freestyle team again cinched the meet by taking first and third places. This meet with Western was one of the determining factors in winning the west side title.

Bill Dietrich, the 200 yard freestyle man, was the only man on the team with an unbeatable record. Roger Tracey, who swam the 100 yard freestyle and the 150 individual medley, came close to him in points.

This is the sixth straight year that Redford swimmers have been West Side Champions. This is possible, in part, because of the team constantly building up within itself and having lettermen returning for the next season.

Despite a victory by Redford swimmers over Western in their dual meet, the Western Cowboys went all out to gain the City title. They defeated the Huskies 55 to 46½. Denby followed third with a close 45 points.

Bill Dietrich, (pictured at right), completed his senior year by taking a first in the 200 yard freestyle. Dietrich also placed first, along with Sprague, Gunn, and Evans, in the 200 yard freestyle relay.

Among the point getters for Redford were Roger Tracey, (pictured at right), coming in second in the 150 yard individual medley, Gary Sprague with a third in the 50 yard freestyle, and Bob Sprenger, who earned a similar spot in the 100 yard backstroke. Among the seniors participating in the City competition were Lee Gunn, Maynard Evans, and Mike Tate.

Redford vs. denby

Redford suffered one of its infrequent defeats under the always-powerful swimming team of Denby. Redford was unable to overcome the Tars' consistent placing. Bill Dietrich, however, again managed to win top spot in the 200 yard freestyle. Gary Sprague, (pictured at right), placed second in the 50 yard freestyle. Altogether the Redford tankers piled up a score of 39 points to Denby's 52.

redford's new fight song

At football games the crowd sings the new fight song to spur on the team.

Mr. Sayres

MARCH TEMPO

FIGHT FOR THE RED AND GREY FIGHT ALL THE

WAY --- GO TEAM KEEP ROLL - ING WE WILL WIN TO

DAY SO GET THAT BALL AND GO DOWN THE FIELD WE'LL

NEVER YIELD --- (SOLO) --- FIGHT!

RED AND GREY

Mr. Cortlandt Sayres, English teacher and avid sports fan, added much to this year's sports scene when his ten-year dream of a Redford fight song was realized.

Mr. Sayres, who wrote the lyrics of the popular new song, first heard the melody while attending Trinity College in Hartford, Connecticut. To this tune he added the words, tried out the song on several of his classes, and was given another boost by Mr. Gene Fenby, who wrote the band arrangements.

The song, which is rapidly becoming a part of the Redford scene, was first sung by the students at the football pep rallies. Now, the students join together and sing it at all of Redford's football games.

The Blazer joins with the rest of the school in expressing appreciation to Mr. Sayres for this tangible evidence of school spirit.

HOMER A. CLARK
Principal

Dear Seniors:

This edition of your BLAZER, arriving in the closing days of your four years of high school, brings together memories of many of those things that have combined to make that education meaningful. The purpose of this BLAZER is to help you keep a clear picture in mind of so much that otherwise might be forgotten. Be sure to keep this splendid book, for in future years you would not part with it for anything.

There have been numerous things that have contributed to your education during these past four years—the part that you have absorbed from books has been augmented by the discussions, the fun, the laughter, the joking together, the gripes, the moments of disappointment that come with working together. We hope this book will enable you to relive some of these experiences in later years.

We, of the faculty, hope for you that all of these elements will have been combined to produce a background for you that will be a steadying force in whatever path you may be led. From here some will go to colleges for further training, some into the business world, some to marriage and homemaking, some to a period of service in the armed forces before embarking on one of the other paths.

Best wishes for success and happiness. We hope that your memories of Redford will be happy ones and that you will come back to see us whenever you can by way of the Alumni Association.

Sincerely your friend,

Homer A. Clark

JUNIOR MISS, the Senior production, was presented November 5th and 6th at 8 p. m. in the Redford High School auditorium.

The play is a family comedy revolving around Harry (Bill Peters) and Grace (Barbara Davis) Graves and their two teen-age daughters, Lois (Judy MacAlpine), the elder, and Judy (Georgia Noomie). Judy has an amazing capacity for food to the disgust of Hilda (Nancy Doubleddee), the housekeeper.

Judy decides that her father must be in love with his boss's daughter, Ellen Curtis (Nancy Alexander). In confidence, Judy and her very close friend, Fuffy Adams (Kay Keckonen), kindle a romance between Ellen and Judy's long-lost Uncle Willis (Jerry Atkin) very much to the dismay of old J. B. (Bill Maeller), the boss. Amid all the turmoil popular Lois's escorts (Bob Demaray, Wayne Scott, Jerry Mueller, John Lama, Denver Loper, and Bernie Bogdon) keep appearing on the scene.

When Judy is not involved in family affairs, she and Fuffy are conspiring to get escorts for a New Year's party. Barlow Adoms (Richard Roe), Fuffy's brother, is to take his sister and get a date for Judy. Haskell Cummings (Fred Smith) turns out to be the man in Judy's life.

The play takes place during the Christmas and New Year holiday season. A scene on Christmas morning provided comedy.

Directing JUNIOR MISS were Mrs. Joyce Trotter and Mary Galneder, student director.
